

Posted on Monday, Sep. 24, 2007

Sanctuary offered for surviving pets

Honor Sanctuary, a not-for-profit animal rescue organization in Manatee County, has launched its new pet trust program, Angel Watch.

The program offers pet services and programs for pets that survive their owners. The sanctuary will take care of the pets needs and, if possible, find new homes for them.

The Sanctuary focuses on animal rescue, adoptions, spay and neutering, and education for the the Manatee and Sarasota areas. The organization is looking for land to establish a permanent facility.

Read More...